

Sense of Reconnection

Fancy a corporate year-end event in an inspiring location, such as perched on top of a hill with drop-dead views, on the beach or in slightly more formal surroundings? There's no limit for your imagination.

Six Senses Ninh Van Bay provides a unique sanctuary in a remote location for your executive team to reconnect in a comfortable and safe environment with the highest level of hygiene standards.

We organize bespoke meeting spaces based on individual preferences. We can also add enriching activities, creative dining and leisurely spa offerings to the mix to put the bang back into business and groove back into any group.

Pick from many unforgettable settings and locations for your formal or slightly more adventurous meetings. In addition, the multi-function room at Dining by the Bay provides a unique indoor setting for a standing cocktail event accommodating up to 70 guests or 50 seats for buffet dining options. Anything goes, just choose whether you want walls or not!
